ALLIED WAR VETERANS

GRAND ORGANIZATION OF ALL SERVICE MEN OF WORLD WAR PLANNED

An organization to include every man who donned a uniform, whether he saw service or not, is planned by survivors of the American army and navy in the world war. It is to be of the nature of the G. A. R. and similar organizations, but with a wider scope of activities. The welfare of all its members is to be closely looked after, their grievances redressed, pensions procured for them, and employment secured if possible. The local branches of the order are to be called "Dugouts," in memory of some of the hardships in the trenches. A local Dugout is to be organized in Glendale at a meeting to be held next Tuesday evening in the Social Hall at the Elks' Club House. Every man or boy who saw service in the field or training camp or who donned a uniform, should be present and join, as great benefit will accrue to him aside from the fellowship enjoyed. This invitation includes Eagle Rock, Burbank, La Crescenta, La Canada, Montrose and Sunland.

AGAIN BEREAVED

Mrs. Hattie Gaylord of 1134 East Lexington Drive is just getting up after a very serious illness from which she has been suffering since January following an attack of influenza. She is now able to see her friends and they will be welcome as she is lonely. News has just reached her of the death of her son, Herbert C. Gaylord, who died at Riverside after seven months' illness of abscess on the lungs. She is not strong enough to attend the funeral, which will take place the first of the week. Her husband, William B. Gaylord, died last November and she is left very much alone.

THEY HAVE THEIR WISH

T. S. Caldwell, wife and two little ones, moved last Saturday into the property they recently purchased of S. R. Frazee, at 335 W. Broadway. Mr. Caldwell is director of boys' work in the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. He held a similar position in the Y. M. C. A. at Oakland up to six months ago when he secured a transfer to Los Angeles. They have been wanting to live in Glendale ever since they came south, but could find nothing suitable to rent, so cut the Gordian knot by buying.

MUSIC SECTION

Members of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club were delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kinney at 123 W. Elk avenue. Miss Berliner sang the aria from "Caro Mia Ben" by Giovanni and "Mattina" by Tosti; Mrs. J. J. Nesom read a very comprehensive paper on Italian opera singers, and Mrs. Mills, a Los Angeles teacher of the voice, gave charming piano numbers: "Fantasy Impromptu" by Chopin and "The Song of the Lark" by Tchikowsky. Mrs. Kinney's daughter, Mrs. Leighton, sang "Were My Song with Wings Provided."

Delicious refreshments of sherbet and cake were served by the hostess.

TOURIST RATES RESTORED

The Railroad Administration has announced that tourist rates of one and one-third fare for round trip will be allowed the coming spring and summer between the large Eastern cities and California points. It is expected that this will result in the greatest rush to California ever known.

TESTS AND PICTURES

GLENDALE'S THREE FINE FIRE ENGINES PHOTOGRAPHED IN RIGID TESTS

This morning at 9 o'clock Glendale's three magnificent fire engines made a practice run to Jackson and Doran streets to test their capacity and durability in action. In the first test three lines were coupled on to engine No. 3, two lines to No. 2 and one to No 1, using 1⅛-inch nozzles. Then all three engines were run at 120 pounds pressure and the six lines threw 370 gallons a minute, each, or a total of 2,220 gallons. Then No. 2 and No. 3 engines were both coupled to a single line with 2-inch nozzle and at 150 lbs. pressure a stream was thrown 162½ feet straight upward. All these tests were from a single 20-inch main. Pictures were taken of the two tests at different periods of the action and of the three engines. Chief Lankford and his boys are mightily pleased with the action of their pets.

BRILLIANT FUNCTION

BANQUET BY GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER, O. E. S., LARGE AND ELABORATE AFFAIR

The four-course turkey banquet in honor of the Grand Officers of the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening at Masonic Temple was pronounced the most brilliant function Glen Eyrie Chapter has ever given. Associated with it as assisting hosts and hostesses were members of the Van Nuys Chapter. Covers were laid for two hundred distributed at thirteen tables according to a system which reflected great credit on the committees and on their general chairman, Miss Cora Hickman, who was overwhelmed with congratulations on the perfection of details and success of the affair. She, however, generously diverted the praise to the "splendid committees who assisted me."

Grand officers who were guests of honor were: Grand Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall; Grand Patron, D. Wilson Pierce; Grand Chaplain, Mrs. Margaret McPeak Campbell, who is also a member of Glen Eyrie Chapter. These Grand Officers were seated at a special table placed on the raised platform and with them were seated Bert R. Holloway, Worthy Patron of the Van Nuys Chapter; Mrs. Mary G. Pollock, Worthy Matron of Glen Eyrie Chapter; Mrs. Nina Streeter, Worthy Matron of Van Nuys Chapter; Robert M. Grumbling, Worthy Patron of Glen Eyrie, and Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Worthy Grand Marshal of the General Grand Chapter of the United States. Beautiful red roses were used in the floral decoration of this table.

Another group to which special honor was paid, was placed at the "trailer" table at which were seated the escorts of the Grand Officers. At that table, beautifully decorated with pink sweet peas, Mrs. Mabel McFadden, wife of Worthy Patron McFadden, of Glen Eyrie Chapter, who was unable to be present, acted as hostess and Daniel Campbell as host.

At a table reserved for associate matrons, centered by lovely cream-colored roses, Mrs. Sallie Braden, Associate Matron of Glen Eyrie, and Mrs Edith Bliss, Associate Matron of Van Nuys, were hostesses.

On ten other tables which represented the five points of the star, the centerpieces were small pedestals about 18 inches tall made by students of Glendale Union High, covered with white enamel paint topped with the color of the star point they represented. These pedestals were given to the hostess at the star tables as a memento of the occasion. Covers were laid for sixteen at these tables.

At the first of these, the Adah table for Glen Eyrie, which, like its sister table was beautiful with blue corn flower blossoms, Miss Mildred Lyons was hostess, her special guest being Mrs. Minnie White, Grand Adah.

At the Adah table for Van Nuys, Miss Hallie Hussaker was hostess, special guests seated there being Mrs. Ella Friend, District Deputy Grand Matron, and Mrs. Mary McKay, District Deputy Grand Matron of San Diego.

At the Ruth tables yellow narcissi were used for floral embellishment, Miss May Cornwell acting as hostess for Glen Eyrie, her special guests being Mrs. Margaret E. Sawyer, Associate Grand Matron, and Mrs. Lydia A. Oliver (mother of Irving Oliver) Past Grand Matron of the State of New Jersey. Miss Alice Chase was hostess at the Van Nuys Ruth table, her special guests being Mrs. Margerita Job, Associate Grand Con-

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

BOYS AND GIRLS OF FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH HAVE DELIGHTFUL EVENING

A big attendance of boys and girls and their parents made the Sunday School party at the First Congregational Church in this city Friday evening a great success. The church was beautifully decorated for the affair, the north rooms being fairly bowered in pepper boughs to simulate the Forest of Arden. Elsewhere acacia bloom made a beautiful setting for the function.

The brief program was musical and included two duets by little pupils of Mrs. Calvin Whiting, Josephine Franklin and Nellie Phillips. William McRae, a talented six-year-old and pupil of Mrs. Cunningham, played several selections alone and three duets with Mrs. Cunningham. The balance of the evening was given to games one room being reserved for the younger pupils, the other to the older boys and girls and their parents. Refreshments of home-made cake and fruit punch were served.

FRICTION WITH JAPAN

ANTI-AMERICAN CAMPAIGN IN THE ORIENTAL PRESS REACHES ACUTE STAGE AND CAUSES CONCERN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 22.—The government is closely watching public feeling in Japan and is showing some concern over the situation, it became known today. The anti-American campaign in the Oriental press has reached an acute stage.

Criticism started when American troops were first sent into Siberia. The Japanese felt the United States was not acting with sufficient vigor. The Japanese also are apprehensive of the possibility of the development of American trade in Siberia, fearing that the United States may outstrip Japan commercially.

WAR STATUS OF GERMANY FIXED

TO BE ALLOWED TO MAINTAIN 100,000 SOLDIERS AND 4,000 OFFICERS WITH LIMITED OTHER APPOINTMENTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, March 22.—It was learned authoritatively today that the military and naval and aviation terms of the peace treaty agreed upon by the supreme war council will include the provision that Germany will be allowed to maintain a maximum of seven infantry and three cavalry divisions, totalling 100,000 men and not over 4,000 officers. The officers to be employed in the war ministry in the various German states must not exceed 300, while the number of civilians employed in the war administration must not exceed 10 per cent of the number employed in 1913.

President Wilson did not attend today's meeting of the war council, considering it more important that he be present at the meeting of the League of Nations commission.

It was learned authoritatively that the United States Senate must ratify the preliminary peace treaty, including the League of Nations covenant, and that the covenant and peace treaty cannot be considered separately.

The President's associates asked him if he would stump the country in case the Senate refuses to ratify the League of Nations.

"That's a good guess," he answered.

The Italian official press bureau today denied reports that Italy would withdraw from the peace conference unless given possession of Fiume.

CONSIDER BOLSHEVIKI BROTHERS

SOLDIERS OF FRENCH REGIMENT AT ODESSA REFUSE TO ATTACK, THOUGH DECLARING LOYALTY TO FRANCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, March 22.—French Socialistic and Russian reports say that a French regiment in the Odessa region mutinied when they were ordered to attack the Bolsheviki.

The soldiers sent a delegation to their officers, declaring they were ready to fight for France, "but not against our brothers." They were reminded of the penalty for mutiny and replied: "We know it, but our decision cannot be altered."

MAYOR WOODMAN PLEADS "NOT GUILTY"

HIS ATTORNEY, JOHN FREDERICK, SAYS THERE WILL BE NO MOVE TO HAVE INDICTMENT SET ASIDE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, March 22.—Mayor Frederick Woodman, indicted on the charge of soliciting and agreeing to accept a $25,000 bribe from two negro politicians for police protection of the "underworld," was arraigned today and pleaded "Not guilty."

He asked for a speedy trial and indicated that he proposed to make it a fight to a finish.

Captain John Frederick, attorney for the mayor, declared: "We will meet what they have to say. There will be no move to have the indictment set aside."

District Attorney Woolwine issued a statement saying that he regretted that Mayor Woodman had to be indicted, but added the charge that the police are attempting to block the prosecution. He refused to say whether other indictments are likely to follow.

Mayor Woodman issued a statement at noon indicating there would be a shake-up in the police department. He said that certain changes may be expected, but added the assurance that every change must originate with Chief of Police Butler.

DRASTIC ACTION BY POSTMASTER GENERAL

REMOVES CLARENCE MACKAY, PRESIDENT, AND OTHER OFFICIALS OF POSTAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Washington, March 22.—Postmaster General Burleson today removed Clarence H. Mackay, president; W. W. Cook, general counsel; William S. Deegan, secretary, and the board of directors of the Mackay Company operating the Postal Telegraph and Telephone system.

He appointed A. F. Adams to succeed them in the management.

Burleson said, in announcing the move, that the men removed had "failed to carry out the orders and instructions of the Postmaster General and have conducted themselves before the public and in the operating force in such a manner as to disadvantageously affect the interests of the government."

"INFLUENCE"

BRILLIANT ADDRESS BY W. L. Y. DAVIS BEFORE MEN'S BROTHERHOOD

Men of the First Methodist Church have an independence day once a month in which they don aprons and do K. P. duty at the church in the preparing, serving and clearing away of the Brotherhood banquet. Friday night J. P. Fansett was commander-in-chief of the affair and marshalled his forces in fine style. About seventy-five members of the Brotherhood were on hand to enjoy the refreshments and the after-dinner program which was provided by W. L. Y. Davis of Pasadena, an ex-Chautauqua lecturer and a brilliant, eloquent speaker. His theme was "Influence," and his appeal was strong, not alone to the men present but to the boys of Elwood Ingledue's class who were there as guests.

Instead of the ordinary sustained argument it was a series of brilliant epigrams poured forth like highly polished pebbles with which he built up a mountain of evidence. He declared that great men come in groups. Running down the lines of history he grouped the great men by centuries and showed how they clustered about some one person. "Greatness," he insisted, "is catching and one great man influences another to greatness."

Referring to the influence of age on youth he said: "Boys do not do what you say but do what you do." To his men hearers he brought the message: "Unless you reinforce what you say by action, your words will not amount to anything." It was a very striking and most impressive service.

RAINFALL RECORD

There was .03 of an inch of rainfall yesterday afternoon, bringing the total for the season up to 11.32. This time last year the total was 17.44. Though we are 6.12 inches short of last year's precipitation, the ground is in fine shape, owing to the fact that nearly all that has fallen this season has been absorbed. It may surprise some people to know that last year there was a difference of more than 2 inches in the rainfall of the northern and southern portions of the city and this year there is a difference so far of nearly 1 inch.

HONORING MR. AND MRS. MARQUARDT

Mr. and Mrs. John Marquardt of 507 North Kenwood street were guests of honor at a musicale given by Miss Gertrude Champlain at her studio on Hawthorne street Thursday evening. The guest list included Mr. Pla, a singer well known in Glendale, and Mrs. Pla, Mr. and Mrs. Schindler, also musicians, and the mother of the hostess. The Marquardts leave Tuesday for their new home in Sierra Madre. They promise not to forget Glendale and say they will frequently return to see their old friends. They are making the change to get nearer to the mountains as they are great mountain climbers and nature lovers.

NEW DATES

CHAMPIONSHIP BASKET BALL GAME AND TRACK MEET SET FOR NEXT TUESDAY

The track meet which was to have taken place between the boys of South Pasadena and Glendale High at South Pasadena Friday afternoon, was postponed on account of the bad weather and is now set for next Tuesday afternoon at Occidental Track. The championship basketball game has also been set for Tuesday in the Pasadena Y. M. C. A. court. If both events come off Tuesday it will make a big day for the athletic department of Glendale High.

AMERICAN SERVICE LEAGUE

The community is urged to keep in mind the soldier supper which is to be served at the First Methodist Church in this city Friday evening next at 6:30 under the auspices of the Ministerial Association of Glendale. Every man who went into service from this city will be an honored guest. Covers will be laid for soldiers only, but the banquet will be followed by a program to which the general public will be welcome. The object of the gathering will be the formation of The American Service League, an organization intended to unite the soldiers of the war just ended as did the Grand Army of the Republic the men of the Civil War.

MONEY FOR GOOD WORK

ENTHUSIASTIC BOOSTER MEETING FOR SALVATION ARMY DRIVE AT ELKS' CLUB

A representative audience and a very enthusiastic one responded to the invitation of the Glendale Elks' Club to attend Friday evening a booster meeting for the Salvation Army Drive which will be on next week. The addresses made by Majors Louise Coggeshell and William H. Gooding were practical but full of interest and increased the enthusiasm. Major Coggeshell told of rescue work and the maternity home work of which she is in charge, and Major Gooding of the industrial home for men. In the audience was a sprinkling of soldiers who know better than civilians possibly can the splendid war service rendered by this organization. At the close of the meeting a collection was taken which yielded over $100 for the cause.

While the local drive will be on all next week, Wednesday and Thursday will be the big days. Organization is being effected and the Elks' Drill Team has agreed to be responsible for one district, its members to go out in the dress uniform of their organization.

Roy Kent offered his office on Brand boulevard as headquarters for the drive and for the deposit of funds. Workers are urgently needed for the drive and every person who is willing to render any service in connection with this effort is requested to register at Mr. Kent's office.

In twenty-seven counties in this state the Elks will have charge of the Salvation Army Drive, and in San Francisco and Los Angeles leading business and professional men have undertaken to raise $535,000, leaving but $287,000 of the quota to be raised by the forty-six other counties. Harry M. Tichnor, president of the California Elks' Association, is heading the work of the organization in this drive.

Many churches in the State will devote a portion if not all of their Sunday services to an exposition of the work of this organization which is ready to reach a helping hand to the most lowly no matter how far down they may have fallen, or how degraded in mind or body they may be.

THE GLENDALE PULL

Back in old Rocky Ford, Colorado, the home of the luscious cantaloupe of that name, dwelt side by side for many years, two warm friends, Nathan Rigdon and L. W. Babcock. Mr. Babcock came to Glendale more than 10 years ago and has been here ever since, now living at 413 North Isabel. His friend came out nine years ago and made a visit to Glendale but could not be induced to locate, going down to San Diego, where he has been quite successful in buying lots, erecting houses on them from his own designs and selling them. When Mrs. Babcock died a few weeks ago, the Rocky Ford newspaper chronicled the fact and Mr. Rigdon thus learned of it. He and his wife promptly came up to pay a visit of condolence to Mr. Babcock. The latter showed them the wonderful improvements of our little city and they were so impressed that they expressed a strong desire to locate here. So Mr. Babcock, to clinch the matter, is sending him the Evening News that he may read every day of Glendale's great prosperity.

THE CITY DISTRICTED

THE STAGE SET FOR WHIRLWIND RED CROSS DRIVE FOR CLOTHING

Word has been received from National Headquarters that the liberated countries to which clothing will be sent are Northern France, Belgium, Poland, Italy, Siberia, Montenegro, Czecho-Slovakia, Roumania, Jugo-Slavia. It is also announced from said headquarters that inquiries are being received as to whether or not navy and army uniforms, whether present or obsolete types, can be accepted. The army and navy authorities advise that uniforms may be retained by discharged men, but the men do not actually own them, and it is strictly against the law for them to give them away. Persons in charge of receiving stations should make sure that no United States uniforms of any kind be accepted.

Those in charge of the local Drive announce the dividing of the city into four districts, Brand and Broadway being the dividing lines. On Monday and Thursday collections will be made in northwest district; on Tuesday and Friday in southwest district; on Wednesday and Friday in northeast district; on Thursday and Saturday in southeast district. Those having things to be called for please phone Red Cross Shop Gl. 870-W.

It Makes a Difference

HOW---WHEN---WHERE

In suggesting that they have their tires retreaded, we frequently have people tell us that their experience with retreads has been unsatisfactory.

We well know that this is too often the case, and that is the reason why we state that

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE HOW—WHEN—WHY

So many fail to realize that there is a difference "HOW" retreading is done. Detailed explanation here would be tiresome, but possibly in no other one thing does skillful workmanship and quality of material count for more.

Too many do not take "WHEN" into consideration and allow their tires to become so badly worn that they should not be repaired at all.

The third propostion, or "WHERE," is closely allied with the first and completes the circle.

The Superiority of Monarch Retreads

IS NO LONGER IN DOUBT.

Their Popularity Is an Assured Fact.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

ACACIA AVE. MOTHERS' CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' Club was held at Acacia Avenue School yesterday afternoon. A splendid program was provided by pupils of the school. Miss Flood, dean of the High School girls, was speaker of the afternoon. Her talk was greatly enjoyed. A very pleasant social hour was held, during which refreshments were served, completing a most excellent afternoon's program.

Personals

Mrs. Isabel Webb, for many years a resident of Glendale but now of Santa Ana, is here for a few days' visit with old friends.

D. Ripley Jackson will contribute a solo "In the Wilderness" by Dichmont, to the musical service, at St. Mark's Sunday morning.

W. J. Stone of 641 North Brand boulevard is flat on his back with a belated attack of flu. It is not of a serious nature, but will keep him in for several days longer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. George of 400 West Stocker street have just returned after a two weeks' sojourn at Long Beach where they enjoyed all the pleasures that the beach affords.

Mrs. H. L. Wiley of El Paso, Tex., will be the dinner guest this evening of Mrs. Roscoe Puffer of 452 Vine street, and the luncheon guest of Mrs. Frank C. Lindley of Riverdale Drive.

Dana Bartlett, for many years head of the Bethlehem Mission in Los Angeles, will occupy the pulpit Sunday evening of Rev. E. H. Willisford, who goes to Highland Park to preach in Dr. Fox's church.

Members of Chapter B. A. of the P. E. O. had an afternoon of industry interspersed with visiting in a meeting held Friday at the home of Mrs. Kate Parker on Louise street. Sewing for philanthropies in which they are interested kept them busy.

Dr. Jessie Russell left Friday evening on the Lark for Sacramento, where she expects to spend ten days. She will stop off at Santa Cruz for a conference in regard to the State Convention to be held there May 27th to 29th of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations.

Mrs. A. S. Chase entertained at an informal tea Friday afternoon at her pleasant home on Riverdale Drive, a dozen old friends from her former home in Faribault, Minnesota. It was a delightful reunion for all concerned. Tuesday Mrs. and Miss Chase were luncheon guests of Mrs. W. Francis Gates of Los Angeles.

A visitor from Ashford, Arizona, who spent some time in Glendale, attended the Community Sing while here and was so enthused that she has been instrumental in organizing one in her home town of which she writes: "It is a little wobbly, but we sing and laugh and enjoy it immensely."

THE THIRD LECTURE

Dr. Chas. Edward Locke of Los Angeles will deliver the third of the series on "Christian Fundamentals" in the High School auditorium next Monday evening. His subject is a most timely one, "The Christian Sabbath."

QUARANTINED

The Hartley Shaw family is quarantined for influenza. Mr. Shaw and his daughter Dorothy are ill with it but not dangerously so. It has entirely upset Mrs. Shaw's preparations for work in the Red Cross Clothing Drive in which she was planning to take a very active part.

A NOVEL STUNT

In the Central Christian Sunday School six mission classes, taking in all ages, are now being conducted on Sunday evenings. A "stunt" of some kind, illustrative of the line of study pursued, is put on each Sunday. Tomorrow night the men's class, which is studying the church's duty to labor, from the text book, "The Right to Live," will put on a pantomime representation of the strike of the future, wherein Christian employers will deal direct with Christian workers.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR COUNTY CONVENTION AT POMONA

A large number of the Presbyterian young people are going to Pomona to attend the Christian Endeavor County Convention, which commenced last evening and continues through tomorrow night. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, of the Presbyterian Church here, gives the address at the mass meeting tomorrow afternoon. Several house parties were formed and a grand good time both spiritually and recreative is anticipated.

MR. AND MRS. PHILP RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philp have returned from their wedding journey and are at the home of Mrs. A. W. Dow, 209 North Orange street, this city. They are to be guests of honor at several social affairs arranged for the coming week and will leave in about ten days for Chicago where they will make their permanent home. Their friends will be very welcome at the Dow home during their brief stay here.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Sunday. Warmer.

MASONIC NOTICE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., will confer the Second Degree this evening at 7:30. Buffet luncheon. Visiting Masons invited.

BUSINESS INSURANCE
is growing in popularity every day. Nothing is so valuable. Why should a firm have its merchandise and building fully insured, when the brains and personalities that make the business, and without which it would be worth little or nothing, are covered with very small amounts?
The HUMAN asset is the principal asset in every business and is always in the greatest peril.
A man is about 16 times as likely to die, as his goods to burn.
How much would your business be worth without you?
There are a number of firms in Glendale to which I can be of invaluable service. Is this "a word to the wise"?

WANT TO TRY GLENDALE

John F. Bradley and wife and their son, L. B. Bradley, together with his wife and little son, are out here from Interlaken, N. Y., 17 miles south of Ithaca, the seat of Cornell University, between Senaca and Cayuga Lakes. They were in California two years ago and this trip has about decided them to locate here. They have been staying in Highland Park, but are very anxious to spend some weeks in Glendale, having heard so much of its scenic beauties and its equable climate, but so far have been unable to rent a furnished house or apartment, so great is the demand for both in beautiful Glendale. The Bradleys live in probably the most beautiful portion of New York State, but the winters are so execrable, lasting from November till April and sometimes May, that Glendale appeals most strongly to them.

NEW APARTMENTS FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Four up-to-date apartments—3 three-room at $14 each and 1 four-room at $18. Strictly modern, corner Glendale avenue and Broadway. See owner, Anthony Ambrosini, at 446 S. Jackson, or inquire on the premises. Call at once. Phone Gl. 102-W. 170t2*

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE

The Young Women's Christian Association is making a drive this week for funds to carry on its town and country work. No part of the war budget raised last year can be used in maintaining the regular work at home, and yet the regular work must be carried on.

This town and country work is a diversion of the work whereby women and girls in small communities may have the advantages and privileges of clubs, recreation centers and study classes under trained leadership.

There are in every community girls who need this combination of recreation, study and social life to develop them into the intelligent and resourceful women they should be.

Mrs. H. W. Yarick has charge of the drive in Glendale and tomorrow in each church an opportunity will be given those who wish to help in this cause. So do not overlook the white box with the blue triangle.

BRILLIANT FUNCTION

ductress, and Mrs. Katherine Jamison, District Deputy Grand Matron.

White carnations made beautiful the Esther tables, Mrs. Theodessa Letts serving as hostess for Glen Eyrie with Mrs. Lilian Beckley, Grand Treasurer, as her special guest. Miss Margaret Carr was hostess at the Van Nuys Esther table where Mrs. Maud Sibley, Grand Conductress, was a special guest.

It would be hard to find prettier tables than those representing "Martha," where maidenhair fern was artfully employed. Mrs. Jennie Phillips was hostess for the local chapter, her guest of honor being Mrs. Nan Bailey, Past Matron of Van Nuys. Over the Martha table, Miss Maud Ely, of Van Nuys, presided as hostess, her honor guest being Mrs. Ivy Shellhammer, Past Grand Matron.

Red carnations featured the "Electra" tables, the hostess for Glen Eyrie being Mrs. Nellie Davis, her special guest being Mrs. Lewis of Burbank, matron of the chapter just organized there. At the Electra table for Van Nuys, Mrs. Helen Daugherty presided as hostess, her guest of honor being Mrs. Isabel Dietrich, Grand Electra.

For each one of these guests a beautiful hand-painted place card was provided, the standing figure of a dainty, befurbelowed maiden, gowned in pink, green or blue, carrying a bouquet from which depended a satin ribbon leading to the name card of the guest. These beautiful bits of art were the handiwork of Miss June Goto, daughter of the proprietor of the Park Avenue Nursery, this city, and a member of the Freshman class of Glendale Union High.

When all the courses had been served and guests were dallying with their coffee, Miss Hickman, as general chairman, called upon the Grand Matron, Mrs. Marshall, and Grand Patron, D. Wilson Pierce, who made excellent after dinner speeches and who were followed by C. L. Peckham, Commander of Glendale Commandery, Knights Templar, who gave a talk along Masonic lines which was enjoyed.

The reception committee did excellent work in promoting the general good fellowship among those present. It included the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of the local chapter, Mrs. Pollock and Robert Grumbling, Mrs. Nina Streeter and Bert Holloway, Worthy Matron and Patron of Van Nuys, Past Matrons and Patrons Messrs. and Mesdames Warren Roberts, A. M. Beamon, A. W. Powers, Mrs. Adelaide Imler, Mrs. Mary O. Ryan, Mrs. Luella M. Bulliis, Miss Fredonia Borthick, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, Dr. A. L. Bryant, Prof. G. U. Moyse, Daniel Campbell, Miss Della Marie Echols, all of Glendale, and the following from Van Nuys: Mrs. George Arthur Bohlander, Carl Barkla, Mrs. Nan Bailey and Arthur Streeter.

The bestowal of gifts upon guests of honor was an important part of the function and the speeches with which they were presented were eloquent and highly creditable to the orators and to the chapter they represented. This part of the program included the presentation to the Grand Matron, Mrs. Marshall, of a gift of table linen by Worthy Patron Robert Grumbling; the presentation to Grand Patron D. Wilson Pierce by Worthy Matron Mary G. Pollock of a handsome silver nut bowl. To Past Patron E. U. Emery was given the privilege of presenting to Grand Chaplain Mrs. Margaret McPeak Campbell, who was Matron when he was Patron of Glen Eyrie, a beautiful boudoir lamp. Mrs. A. E. Beamon, who was unable to be present, arranged with the Associate Matron, Mrs. Sallie Braden, to present to Mrs. Campbell a beautiful bouquet of narcissi.

Following the dinner the guests adjourned to the Chapter Room and there exemplified the ritual work, the Van Nuys officers putting on the initiatory work by initiating Mr. and Mrs. James Roland McDermaid. The Glen Eyrie officials opened and closed and did escort work.

It was an occasion which will long be remembered by all who were present and Glen Eyrie officials feel exceedingly grateful to all those inside and outside of the chapter who contributed to make it so great a success, among whom special mention is made of D. Ripley Jackson of the Glendale Floral Company, who rendered invaluable service in floral decoration.

"Friends do not make a man, but if a man has the right personality, the right calibre, he cannot help making friends—they just feel drawn to him. The thing to do is not to set out to cultivate friends who you figure may be useful, but to cultivate and develop qualities and abilities that increase your own usefulness."—Anon.

WORRY

All things go just as they ought to go,
All things are just as they ought to be.
Whether you worry and try to know
If you might not in the future see
Some great horizon, on which to do
Great deeds with glory and fame.
But worry will cast you down, as few
Have e'er to those titles rightfully came
Who would not in causes which they knew
Refuse to serve if they were true.
